United States Senator William M. Calder in an interview with an Evening World reporter to-day described in detail the steps he proposes that Congress shall take in the matter of coal control if the price is not lowered by Dec. 6, the date of the reassembling

"The Government," he said, "would take full control. It would fix the price of coal at the mines. It would control and fix the cost of transportstion. It would fix the price to the retailer and see that the people are no longer victimized by profitgers. The Coal Administrator would be given authority to limit exportation and to
